CHINA WAR NEWS:

CHINESE BESIEGE HOPEI TOWN: STIFF RESISTANCE IN WEST SHANSI FIGHTING

CHENGCHOW, June 6 (Central)—Following a recent sweeping victory over the Japanese in the hilly regions near Yihshien, south-west of Peiping, Chinese units are now besieging the town of Yihshien.

Bitter combats are reported raging in the vicinity of Nanho, Lungping and Yaoshan, in Southern Hopei. More than 4,000 Japanese driving southeastward from these towns are encountering gallant Chinese resistance.

LOYANG, June 6 (Central)—Two columns of about 800 Japanese commenced a southward drive from Linchu, in Central Shantung, on June 2.

One column is thrusting at Chingyuan and the other at Yeh-yuan. A heavy artillery bombardment has been directed at Yeh-yuan. The Japanese are meeting with stiff Chinese resistance.

Chekkiang Town Recovered KINHWAI, June 6 (Central)—Yuanhsia, Japanese stronghold between Haiyen and Haining, in Northern Chekiang, was recovered by Chinese forces in an attack on Sunday. The Japanese fled towards Huangwan.

PLANE CRASH ENDS BULL FIGHT

A plane which dropped propaganda leaflets over the bull fight arena at Murcia where the first bull fight since the outbreak of the civil war was held on Monday, crashed and the two occupants, both army aviators, were killed.

The bull fight, in which shortly before the banderillero had been wounded by the bull, was immediately called off. (T.O.)

LATVIA, ESTONIA SIGNING PACTS WITH GERMANY

BERLIN, June 6 (Reuter)—It is announced that Non-Aggression Pacts between Germany and Latvia and Estonia, respectively, will be signed in Berlin to-morrow.

FRANCE SURPRISED

The announcement of the conclusion of non-aggression pacts between the Reich and Latvia and the Reich and Estonia came as a surprise to the French capital.

Judging from the press comments, France is not only taken completely by surprise but also further apprehensive as to the effect of the non-aggression pacts between Germany and two of the Baltic States on the negotiations between the Soviet Union and England and France. (T.O.)

CULTURAL AGREEMENT

A cultural agreement between Bulgaria and Italy was signed on Monday. The agreement provides for the introduction of Italian as an obligatory language in the curriculum of the Bulgarian high schools and for an extensive exchange of programme in the various cultural fields.

The agreement was signed on behalf of Italy by the King of Italy and Albania, Emperor of Ethiopia, and is therewith the first documentary recognition of the new status of Albania by a foreign Power. (T.O.)

JUNK LOOTED BY PIRATES

Lau Pui, 28, master of trading junk No. T2326H, reported to the police yesterday that about 10 a.m. on May 5, while proceeding from Hongkong to Hsu Ki Tungkoon District, his junk was boarded and looted by six pirates at a point west of Tai-O, in Chinese waters.

The junk's cargo, comprised of 39 sacks of manure, 28 tins of nut oil, 250 caddies of old newspapers, 560 caddies of salt fish and a bale of hemp trimmings, was removed by the pirates to their own junk. Total value of the goods was about $880.

Prisoner Escapes From Hospital

Police are making a thorough search all over Kowloon and Hongkong for a male prisoner who escaped about 3 a.m. yesterday from a ward at the Kowloon Hospital.

The man is a coolie, named Wong Chuen, a native of Tungkoon District, aged 25, and his home address is given as No. 4 Yat Tak Road, second floor, Kowloon City. He is thin, built, about five feet, four inches in height.

He escaped while dressed in white, regulation hospital clothing, his head being swathed in bandages because of a wound.

Up to a late hour last night, he had not been traced, though police are hopeful of finding him very shortly.

QUIET BIDDING FOR STERLING

Life Infused In London Foreign Exchange Market

LONDON, June 6 (Reuter)—The quiet, but persistent, bidding for sterling yesterday again continued to-day infusing much-needed life into the London foreign exchange market.

Despite official intervention by the British Exchange Account, sterling appreciated this morning in terms of dollars to 4871 compared with 4850 at the close yesterday.

Well-informed circles attribute the advance of sterling to the liquidation of bull positions and dollars owing to abatement of war fears both in Europe and America.

GUILDER WEAKNESS

While the upward trend of the sterling provides chief interest, weakness in the Netherlands guilder is attracting attention.

It is pointed out that the requirements of the French authorities in connection with the recent bond issue constituted a supporting peg for the guilder but, with this now withdrawn, there is little resistance to speculative selling induced by rumours of internal political differences in Holland.

After opening at 8.80 the guilder eased this morning to 8.8250 in terms in sterling.

FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND WILL WITNESS PARADE BEFORE KING AND QUEEN IN WASHINGTON

BRITISH LOSSES IN SPAIN WAR

Substantiation Of Claims

LONDON, June 6 (Reuter)—Machinery has been set afoot to substantiate the British claims for losses suffered in the Spanish war. Mr. R. A. Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, told the House of Commons yesterday. He said, however, that the claims did not include civil claims which will be presented by the Board of Trade.

Mr. Butler added that conditions in Spain were steadily returning to normal and that more of the foreign troops had left Spanish soil.

Italy had left a certain amount of armaments there but he did not agree that was a breach of the Anglo-Italian Agreement.

The British Minister to the Holy See was given an hour's audience by the Pope yesterday, says a Reuter report from the Vatican City.

Royal Route Bedecked With Banners, Shields

WASHINGTON, June 6 (Reuter)—Thousands of visitors are pouring into the capital and it is confidently predicted that over 500,000 will line the two-mile route for Thursday's parade before the King and Queen in which 6,000 troops, with seven bands, and detachments of cavalry, tanks and motorcycle police will participate.

Army bombers and pursuit planes will roar in formation overhead.

Steel cables will be stretched along the pavements to restrain the crowds on the Royal route which is already bedecked with bunting, banners and shields.

Thorough protective measures have been taken for the Royal visit by Secret Service agents and the police.

The British Ambassador to the United States, Sir Ronald Lindsay, and Mr. Cordell Hull, Secretary of State, will leave to-night to greet Their Majesties at Niagara Falls.

VISIT TO NICKEL MINE PARRY, ONTARIO, June 6 (Reuter)—The King and Queen to-day visited a nickel mine here and saw work in progress. The Queen picked up two pieces of nickel ore which she will give Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret as souvenirs.

Fatshan Not Allowed To Leave Canton

JAPANESE THREAT TO BRITISH SHIPS

CANTON, June 6 (Reuter)—Reuter is officially informed by Mr. Okazaki, Japanese Consul-General, that the British steamer Fatshan will not be allowed to go to Hongkong on June 8, as agreed upon by the Japanese in writing, the Consul adding, "The reason for this is that the British authorities are not respecting the spirit and letter of the memorandum concluded between the British Consul-General and myself, by which and Japanese vessels will be allowed up and down the Pearl River provided passengers only were carried. The British authorities now state that a Japanese steamer, chartered by the Japanese Government, is only allowed to carry Japanese army, Navy and Chinese officials."

Mr. Okazaki concluded by stating that if the British do not respect the memorandum the Japanese will stop British shipping in the Pearl River.

Interviewed by Reuter, Mr. A. P. Blunt, British Consul-General, merely commented that he did not agree in any way with the above version but referred the facts to the higher British authorities.

ARGUMENT IN TEAHOUSE

Chinese Attacked With Chopper

As the result of an argument in the Tung Yat teahouse, No. 39 Sakum Road, Kowloon City, yesterday morning, a young Chinese was attacked with a chopper, receiving a cut on the head which required his removal to hospital.

The young man, Cheuk Wak-shing, who lived at No. 97 Sing Nam Road, Kowloon City, went to the teahouse for his morning meal shortly before 8 a.m. During the course of the meal, an argument developed between Cheuk and another customer, whose identity has not been ascertained.

Picking up a chopper, the latter dealt Cheuk a blow on the head, and then ran away from the teahouse.

Other people present went to Cheuk's aid, while a report was made to the nearby police station. An ambulance was later sent for and the wounded man was taken to the Kowloon Hospital for treatment.

WANTED MAN

A youth, named Chan On, about 20 years of age, is wanted by the police in connection with the wounding. Chan is described as being slightly lame in the right leg.

It is learned that the wounded man is a newspaper dealer.

Briton Wounded In Serious Mill Incident Now In "Protective Custody"

SHANGHAI, June 6 (Reuter)—A serious incident in which a Briton, Mr. R. M. Tinkler, an employee at the Pootung plant of the China Printing and Finishing Company, a British concern, was wounded and is now being held in "protective custody" by the Japanese, occurred early this morning.

A Japanese naval spokesman declared at the press conference that the trouble began following a fight between mill strikers and strike breakers.

The British employees of the mill approached the Japanese bluejackets, who were herding off the rioters to headquarters, and asked to be able to take charge of the rioters.

The sailors refused, after which the Britons began to wrestle with the sailors in an attempt to get their rifles away.

One shot was alleged to have been fired by Mr. Tinkler at one of the sailors after which Mr. Tinkler was said to have seized, by the arm, a Japanese officer and pressed a gun against him telling him to get out.

Mr. Tinkler, said the spokesman, was alleged to have pointed the gun three successive times at the commander of the Japanese naval landing party in Pootung, "insulting him and trying to kill him."

Mr. Tinkler was eventually disarmed but as he continued to try to fight he was knocked over the head by a Japanese sailor.

STRONG PROTEST

The Japanese Consul-General called on the British Consul-General, Sir Herbert Phillips, this afternoon and made a strong protest concerning the incident involving Mr. Tinkler. He reserved the right to make any demands which the Japanese authorities may consider necessary.

It is reported from a trustworthy source that a free-for-all occurred in the mills among the Chinese strikers some of whom attacked members of the British staff.

Japanese bluejackets, protecting the mills tried to restore order and Mr. Tinkler was shot and wounded and so was a Japanese officer, but the British authorities have not yet established the exact circumstances.

Mr. Tinkler is at present in a Japanese hospital in Pootung and British officials have been denied access to him.

(Mr. Tinkler was formerly Detective-Inspector in the Shanghai Municipal Police.)

OPERATION ON DETECTIVE

It was learned last night that Detective Wan Man, who was wounded in the Lee Yuen Street East shooting on Monday, had undergone an operation for extraction of the bullet from his stomach, and was progressing as favourably as could be expected.

Though no official statement was forthcoming, it was considered that the detective's chances of pulling through were very high.

One of the robbers, Lo Man-cho, who was caught by another detective after a chase, has been charged and will appear at Central Court to-day.

In to-day's semi-finals, Leglise beat Harry Batley, who won the title in 1931 and 1932, one up, and Chapman beat L. Brisson 4 up and 3.

Sixth Extra Race Meeting, at Happy Valley, 1.30 p.m.

Swiss Set Feb. 3 To 11 As Dates For Winter Olympics

First official word as to the dates and the events of the 1940 Winter Olympic Games at St. Moritz, Switzerland, was received by the American Olympic Committee. The tentative programme issued by the Swiss Organizing Committee sets next Feb. 3 to 11 as the period for the Games and, somewhat to the surprise of officials here, lists four speed-skating events for women, three skiing demonstrations, and a skeleton (one-man) bobsled race.

The inclusion of these events, which now await only ratification by the governing international sports federations, complicates the problems of the American Olympic Committee, for, in staging its various final trials during the past winter, no provision was made for them and, of course, there will be little time available for holding trials before the American squad sails next January.

As for hockey, men's speed skating, and two and four-man bobsleding, also listed on the programme, this country is as well prepared as possibly could be expected, having already selected the major portion of its squad for these sports, and having on hand considerable data to aid in filling what open berths remain.

Women's speed skating, in which races of 500, 1,000, 3,000 and 5,000 meters are listed tentatively, never has been a formal Olympic sport, although demonstration events for women were held in conjunction with the 1932 Winter Games at Lake Placid.

Although it was at the suggestion of the A.O.C. that the skeleton bobsled race, last held in 1928 at St. Moritz, was added there is no "cresta" run in this country. In fact, the only one in the world, as far as it is known, is in St. Moritz and the American trials probably would have to be held there.

CONVALESCENT VILLAS FOR THE WOUNDED

Four Located In Kiangsi

In the beller that abundant sunshine and long rest form the best treatment for wounded soldiers, China is constructing a series of convalescent villas in secluded rural districts far removed from the noise of the battle-front. Four of these villas, each having an area of 120 acres, are located in Kiangsi, buffer province between the Central and South China-war zones.

Some distance from Kian, in southern Kiangsi, is situated one of these villas which was visited by the China Information Committee's Special Correspondent. Built at the foot of a mountain, it is hidden in a forest of camphor trees. In front of it flows the winding Kan River.

The establishment of this villa in September of last year ended a long search on the part of the Kiangsi Provincial Government and the Ministry of War for some place that would provide the proper solitude and rest for the wounded. The villa was occupied for the first time on October 10 of last year, National Day, when 6,000 soldiers were brought in.

Committee Control

Divided into 12 units, the villa is under the control of a committee organized by the convalescing soldiers themselves. Laying stress on self-government, the authorities have given the committee full power to settle disputes and other problems within the villa. Comforts and money sent to the villa by the people or public organizations are distributed by the committee.

Drawn from troops under different commands, the soldiers in the villa have displayed a splendid spirit of mutual help and close co-operation. Those who are able to take exercises have organized themselves into a group, and they participate in a daily drill which is limited to two hours. In their spare time, the soldiers exchange the stories of their many adventures at the battle front.

JAPANESE ABDUCT FORMOSAN

CHUNGKING, June 6 (Central)—Wang Wu-pen, a Formosan student of the National Chian University, Shanghai, was abducted by Japanese plain clothes men at the entrance of the institution last Saturday, according to a Shanghai report.

He is now detained in the Japanese Military Headquarters in Hongkew for questioning.

Alleged to be an anti-Japanese element, Wang had been tracked by the Japanese for some time before. His abduction was not known to the Shanghai Municipal Police.

The National Government has appointed Mr. Chow Chung-yue to succeed Gen. Ho Chien, Minister of the Interior, who has tendered his resignation. Gen. Ho has been appointed Director of the Committee for the Award of Compassionate Grants of the Military Affairs Commission.

An order has been issued by the Central Government to the various Chinese provincial and district authorities instructing that henceforth General Chiang Kai-shek should be addressed as the General Executive of the Kuomintang.

SHANSI WOMEN'S PATRIOTISM

SIAN, June 6 (Central).—Formerly taking little or no interest in public affairs, Chinese women in Shensi have been playing an important role in patriotic activities since the war.

For this change, the Sian branch of the National Women's Relief Association, together with its 51 sub-branches throughout the province, is responsible. Through the efforts of this organization, of which Madame Chiang Kai-shek is the guiding spirit, the once old-fashioned, narrow-minded women are now doing their bit for the nation by participating in such activities as fund raising, making clothes and shoes for soldiers, and nursing, cooking and washing for the wounded.

Contributions According to latest reports, the Association has succeeded in securing contributions of $7,000 relief funds, 6,100 pairs of socks, 1,000 pairs of gloves, and 1,600 suits of clothing, besides old garments, ornaments, goods of daily necessity and metal scrap.

The figures do not include contributions made by its various sub-branches. One sub-branch in Shensi has made more than 1,000 pairs of canvas shoes, and 1,000 pairs of straw shoes.

The Association has taught the national anthem and patriotic songs to the country-folk, and had encouraged many able-bodied young men to join the army.

It is now teaching the illiterates the basic Chinese characters, and issuing a periodical publication called, "Women of the Northwest."

Women Police In Provisional Capital

Police officers are not usually noted for their pulchritudinous qualities. But that's not the case with this snappy squad of Chinese policewomen, part of a force recently organized in Chungking. Picture shows them at rifle practice. (Photo by Mary Fel).

ROTARY CLUB

INTERESTING DISCOURSE
BY PROF. W. BROWN ON A TRIP TO SPITSBERGEN

A learned and interesting discourse on Spitsbergen, composed partly of reminiscences of a trip in that country in the summer of 1938, and partly of general remarks on the geography and history of the place, was given by Prof. W. Brown, of the University of Hongkong, to local Rotarians at a luncheon held in the Roof Garden of the Hongkong Hotel yesterday.

A number of photographs and a large wall-map were used by Professor Brown to illustrate his talk, which was well received by the gathering of members and guests present.

Major R. D. Walker, M.C., who presided, welcomed one visiting Rotarian, Mr. V. E. Ferrier, of Canton, and the following guests:—Rev. J. R. Higgs, Mr. Percy Chen and Mr. H. P. Rox.

PROF. BROWN'S ADDRESS

Part of the text of Prof. Brown's speech follows:—"At about 5 p.m. on July 31, 1938, the good ship 'Atlantis' of the Royal Mail Line, left the fish-stunk port of Akureyri, on the northern rim of Iceland, steamed slowly down the bleak floor under cold gray skies and headed north-east into a cheerless rain-fog. In these high latitudes there is, of course, during the summer months, no real darkness, only an endless twilight, and clocks become strangely unconvincing.

About 30 hours later we were admiring the white cone of Jan Mayen, some 7,000 feet high, the most northerly volcano in the world. The next day, August 2, was of no special interest. We simply ploughed the heaving main under woolly skies and through heavy banks of rain fog.

NORTHERN TWILIGHT

But the morning of August 3 brought a glorious change. Away to the north the glittering glaciers and the saw-tooth ranges of Prince Charles Foreland, and over all the strangely soothing sway of the northern twilight—an influence luminous and serene, a shining peace."

About noon we entered Cross Bay, and after lunch we steamed into the adjacent King's Bay and dropped anchor near the little pier that belongs to the local mining company. Here, and here only, were passengers permitted to land, and the three hours we spent on shore afforded us much interest and satisfaction."

Here the speaker touched upon the physical features of the country. "From King's Bay we sailed north, in the exquisite beauty of the northern twilight, past many a gleaming glacier and glittering ice-cliff, until we had left Spitsbergen altogether and no more land lay between us and the North Pole.

A FROZEN POND

Had the polar seas been open water we might have reached the North Pole itself in 35 or 40 hours easy steaming. But there's the rub. The Arctic Ocean is a frozen pond of salt water, and about 11 p.m. we came to a halt on the edge of the mighty barrier.

No towering icebergs here, for such have their birth only on land, but just an endless array of flat floes of frozen sea-water. Most of the pieces we gazed on under the ample light of the mid-night sun were only a few square yards in area and looked innocent enough.

Our turning point was given as Lat. 80 degrees 14 minutes north, Long. 10 degrees 13 minutes east, distance from North Pole 550 miles. From that remote spot, nearly off the map, I had the satisfaction of sending a greeting to members of this Club. It duly appeared in the Bulletin dated September 18, 1938."

After a few words about the return journey, Professor Brown went on into a general talk on his subject.

"GULF OF WARMTH"

"This map," he said, indicating the wall-map behind him, "on Mercator's projection, the type with which we are all familiar, should help to make some things clear. A fact of vital importance to the life of Western Europe is that 'between' Greenland and Scandinavia there is what the geographers called a 'Gulf of Warmth.'

The prevailing winds and ocean currents carry equable conditions far into the polar regions. Thus Hammerfest, 300 miles north of the Arctic circle, is an open port all the year round. Contrast with, say, Vladivostok which, though in the latitude of the Riviera, is kept open during the winter months only by the persistent use of ice-breakers.

Spitsbergen should naturally, if we go by latitude only, be smothered in eternal ice. But during most summers its southern and western coasts are entirely ice-free, and pleasure cruises can reach to within 500 miles of the Pole. No other region in the world in such a high latitude is so accessible as Spitsbergen.

But a place may be accessible without attracting visitors. And it should be of interest to indicate how and why this archipelago came within the ken of mariners and traders. To understand this fully we must indulge in a big digression and go back in thought a thousand or even two thousand years.

HISTORICAL RESUME

The speaker then delved at length into the development of communications between the Far East and the Far West, taking in his stride the history of the Mongol conquerors, the first and ever-famous Portuguese, Dutch and English pioneers and explorers, the discovery of new trade routes and lands, some of them made by accident, and generally touching upon the whole colourful pageant of the history and geography of that period.

Amongst the names, forever perpetuated in historical records, that he mentioned, were those of Jenghis Khan, Kublai Khan, Marco Polo—that great 'Merchant of Venice'—Bartolomeo Diaz, Vasco da Gama, Christopher Columbus, Barents, Henry Hudson, Nelson, Amundsen, Ellsworth, and Noble."

Concluding, Professor Brown said:—"I have on various occasions been asked 'Is life really tolerable in Spitsbergen, especially during the rigours of an Arctic winter?' Well, those who have made trial of it report that with reasonable precautions, health need not suffer.....

There can be no doubt however, that the perpetual darkness of an Arctic winter is unwholesome. But, for the settler in a mining town, artificial light can be provided in abundance, and not merely light to see with, but artificial sun-rays, from 'mercury vapour lamps,' which, as experience shows, have very valuable tonic effects.

Some enthusiasts envisage a time, in the near future, when Spitsbergen, provided with a few modern hotels, may become a health resort, and a popular playground for 'winter sports' during the summer months.

Anyway, my all-too-brief trip to the Far North in 1938 provided me with a wealth of new interests and pleasures, and if what I have said has conveyed to you even a small fraction of the satis-

SOLICITOR WINS CLAIM FOR VALUE OF PROFESSIONAL SERVICES RENDERED

AN ACTION TO RECOVER THE SUM OF $897 FOR PROFESSIONAL SERVICES RENDERED AND $50 FOR MONEY LENT was successfully brought in the Summary Court yesterday, before Mr. Justice R. E. Lindell, by Mr. F. E. Nash, the solicitor, against Chin Sze-ming, of No. 5 Prospect Lane.

Mr. M. W. Lo appeared for Mr. Nash, defendant being represented by Mr. F. X. D'Almada Remedios.

Defendant, said Mr. Lo, engaged Mr. Nash to act for him in an action in Original Jurisdiction against his mother, concerning some property. The case was settled, but before that defendant dispensed with Mr. Nash's services and engaged Mr. Peter Sin. Mr. Nash had demanded payment, but had received no satisfaction.

In the witness-box, Mr. Nash corroborated Mr. Lo's words.

Defendant's Story

Defendant stated that the agreed costs of the action were $1,000. He had no money at the time, and Mr. Nash obtained money for him on an equitable charge on the property. Of the money, $400 was paid to Mr. Nash on account of costs, $50 was paid for the cost of drawing up the equitable charge and $500 was retained by himself.

Cross-examined by Mr. Lo, defendant said he went to Mr. Peter Sin because at the time Mr. Nash asked for a further sum on account, which he could not pay, and also because he did not like to further mortgage the property, as Mr. Nash suggested.

Mr. Lo: Did you tell Mr. Sin the reason you were compelled to go to him?—Yes, I told him Mr. Nash refused to file the statement of claim for me.

Mr. Lo: I put it to you that Mr. Nash did not agree to take the case for $1,000.—I say he did.

Immediate Execution

In giving judgment, His Lordship said he had no hesitation in accepting plaintiff's story.

Mr. Remedios asked for stay of execution for one week for defendant to see his mother to raise the money, but this was opposed by Mr. Lo, who asked that no indulgence be shown to defendant because the latter, having come to money through Mr. Nash's initial efforts, had kept away from Mr. Nash and not shown any willingness to meet his due responsibilities.

Mr. Lo's request for immediate execution was granted.

Serious Charge
British Police Officer Faces

Sub-Inspector Joseph Herbert Edward Edwards, of the Hongkong Police Force, appeared before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Court yesterday charged with the alleged demanding of money, by menaces, from Lau Hei-yuk, a foreman carpenter of the Kowloon Docks and treasurer of the Hip On Club, Gilles Avenue, Hungnam, on April 23.

Mr. G. S. Ford appeared for the defence.

Edwards is officer-in-charge of Hungnam Police Station. In connexion with the case, a police interpreter, Un Shui-ki, appeared on remand on a charge of extorting $110 from Lau Hei-yuk, as a fee due to him as an interpreter, and, alternatively, with demanding $110 with menaces.

Mr. C. D'Almada appeared for the defence of Un. The hearing, which is for commitment, will commence on Saturday, at 11.30 a.m., when Mr. John Whyatt, Crown Counsel, will prosecute.

Edwards was granted bail in the sum of $100.

JAPANESE ARMY OFFICER FINED

Failing to report his arrival within 48 hours, Hideo Chira, 40, a Japanese Army Officer, was fined $10, when he appeared before Mr. R. Edwards, at the Central Court yesterday.

EAR-RING SNATCHERS
PUNISHED

Two ear-ring snatchers, Cheng Hing and Pang Sze were sentenced to six months' hard labour each, with 15 and 12 strokes, respectively, at the Central Magistracy, by Mr. R. Edwards.

fact that was then so richly mine, I have not occupied your time or disturbed your slumbers in vain." (Applause and laughter).

DEAN WILSON

Thanking the speaker, the Very Rev. J. L. Wilson, Dean of St. John's Cathedral, made a few witty remarks which caused much merriment.

URBAN COUNCIL
MEETINGFour Applications
For Licences Refused

Four applications for licences were refused by the Urban Council at its meeting held in the Council Chamber yesterday.

The applications were for:—

(1) An eating-house licence for No. 25A Pokfulam Village, ground floor;

(2) A food shop (fruit) licence for No. 238 Lai Chi Kok Road, ground floor;

(3) A milk shop licence for No. 388 Lai Chi Kok Road, ground floor;

(4) A food preserving licence to manufacture gourmet powder in premises on Lot No. 753 S.D. 1, Sheung Sha Po, Kowloon City.

Further Representations

In respect of the fourth application the Chairman said: "Members will recall that we first decided to refuse the application, and then further representations were made by the architect acting on behalf of the applicant and the matter was referred back to the Health Officer and the Select Committee, and finally came back to the full Council. All members except Dr. Basto are still in favour of refusal. Personally, I have strong grounds for not allowing the application. Conditions there in Kowloon City have become simply appalling. Numbers of unauthorised buildings, sheds, etc., of all descriptions, seem to be growing up there every day, and dealing with it has become a big trouble."

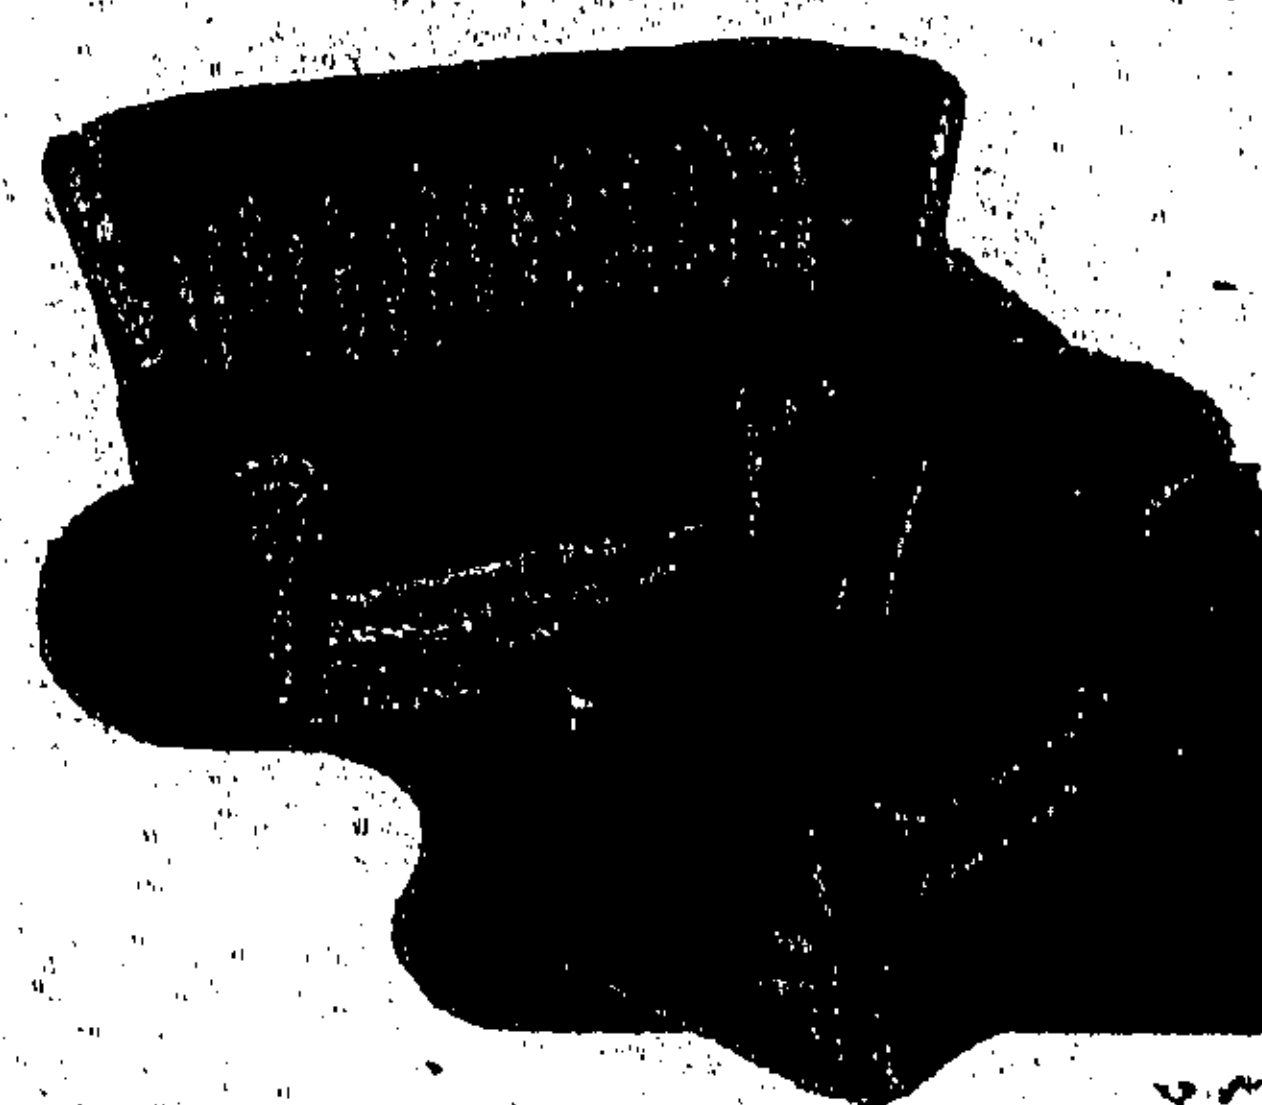

Dr. Basto intimated that he had no objection to the refusal of the application, which was then passed unanimously.

Licences Granted

The following is a list of licences granted by the Council between May 23 and June 6:—

Food factories 2; food-preserving establishment 1; bake house 1; milk shop 1; laundry 1; offensive trades 1; eating houses 4; restaurants 2.

N.E.I. RESTRICTIONS ON PASSENGERS FROM HONGKONG

All passengers from Hongkong are subject to medical inspection on arrival at Netherlands Indian ports and may be kept under surveillance for a period not exceeding five days, reckoning from the day of departure from Hongkong.

Deck and steerage passengers who cannot produce valid certificates of inoculation against cholera will be kept under surveillance.

Cabin passengers are usually exempted from surveillance if they can produce valid certificates of inoculation.

A certificate is considered valid if it shows that inoculation has been performed not less than six days and not more than six months prior to the date of arrival in Netherlands India, and is signed or countersigned by an official medical officer.

The Filipino Chinese Anti-Aggression Association in Manila has written to the People's Foreign Relations Federation in Chungking, stating that thirty Filipino cultural, religious and professional organizations will hold a mass meeting on July 4, supporting the democratic institution and international collective security. The Association suggests that opportunity should be taken of this mass meeting to publicize the Chinese cause by an exhibition of war pictures.

ANNOUNCEMENT
The engagement is announced of Joan, elder daughter of Mr. & Mrs. W. E. Rickwood, of 370, The Peak, and Edward Warren, only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. de la Mare, of Blackheath, London.

MERCHANT SHIPPING RIGHTS

THE INCREASING frequency with which neutral shipping has been interfered with by the Japanese since the outbreak of the hostilities in China has become a matter of paramount interest to shipping interests throughout the world. The limit of endurance would appear to have been reached by the latest high-handed action of the Japanese naval authorities in ordering merchant ships to heave to for examination and questioning under threat of being fired upon. The latest incidents in this connexion are still agitating shipping circles, which, naturally enough, look askance at their governments on the legality of these actions. Does the fact that Japan is at war with China give their naval authorities the right to hold up shipping of neutral powers and subject them to the indignity of questioning and examination such as have taken place in the past few days?

THE ANSWER, according to authoritative sources in Hongkong and at home, is a decided negative. Japan cannot, in the present circumstances under which she is waging her war in China, claim belligerent rights of any kind. She has repeatedly declared, surprisingly enough, that she is not at war with China. That very statement excludes her from practising any belligerent rights, which she can only use against neutral powers if she had formally declared war against China. By what right then does she permit her naval authorities to act as they have been doing of late? On her own admission, such acts are definitely illegal and, as such, it is up to the neutral powers whose interests and dignity are thus slighted, to treat her peremptorily as a law-breaker in order to safeguard merchant shipping from a position which cannot but be viewed with alarm.

THE MERCHANT fleets of the world, bent upon their lawful occasion, form a vital part of a country's prosperity. No country is more conscious of this than Great Britain, which depends to such a large extent on her sea-borne trade for her very existence. It has been estimated that three-quarters of Britain's food supplies come from overseas and her very prosperity would be seriously menaced and hampered if unlawful action is allowed to go unchecked. From the point of view of passenger traffic, the risk of being held up by foreign warships will deter large numbers of people from travelling by sea in these times, particularly as there is no knowing to what extent Japanese arrogance might not rise in order to try to intimidate those powers who they think are sympathetic with China's cause.

NO EVIDENCE: 15 CHINESE DISCHARGED

As there was no evidence to offer for the prosecution against the fifteen Chinese, who were previously charged with the murder of Lau Chau, at Apichau, Aberdeen, on May 15, they were discharged by Mr. R. A. D. Forrest at the Central Court yesterday.

ships proceeding to Far Eastern ports will no doubt relieve any anxiety in this respect, and, unless some other plans are forthcoming to check this ocean lawlessness, the idea should be put into operation without delay. The only alternative to this would be to use force to prevent these aggressive Japanese methods. None of the powers are desirous of causing open conflict in the Far East at this juncture, but, if the Japanese cannot be persuaded to observe the common principles of decency, then shot and shell will probably prove a much more effective method.

Generalissimo Honoured By Tibetans: Presentation Of Silk Flag Token

The popularity of the leadership of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and the solidity of the Chinese nation at war was further manifested in the presentation to him of an embroidered silk flag, bearing the characters "Redeemer of the Far East" by 1,300,000 Tibetans, living on the Tibetan Plateau, China's farthest frontier in the south-west.

The presentation of the flag was made by 12 ecclesiastic and civil leaders in the late part of May, who had specially come to Chungking for the purpose.

During the presentation ceremony, the delegates expressed on behalf of the Tibetans their loyalty and obedience to the Government and the Generalissimo. They also voiced the tribesmen's conviction of final Chinese victory and the success of national reconstruction.

The war, the Tibetans believe, will not only bring about freedom and independence for the Chinese nation, but will also result in the emancipation of the entire Far East. The will of the late Panchen Lama, the "Living Buddha" of Tibet who spent his last 15 years in China, they assured the Generalissimo, is being carried out with great vigour by the Tibetans as true Chinese citizens.

Substantial Donation
Besides paying their respect to the Generalissimo, the Tibetan delegation donated a substantial sum for comfort of the soldiers fighting at the front. The money was to be used for buying medical supplies to be presented to various field and base hospitals. Another sum was given by the delegation to help relieve the sufferings of the recent Chungking bombings. The money was turned over to General Ho Ying-chin, Minister of War and concurrently Chief of Staff of the National Military Council, who was entrusted with the direction of relief work after the Chungking bombings for distribution.

Loyalty And Obedience
To show their loyalty and obedience to the Kuomintang, the entire Tibetan delegation, after visiting Dr. Chu Chia-hua, secretary-general of the Central Kuomintang, decided to join the party and were duly sworn in as party members.

U.S. DOCTOR ALLEGES NAZI ATTACK

Dr. Oscar Lavine, a physician of Mount Rainier, Md., who was sentenced to prison and fined last December on a charge of violating German currency laws, reported to the United States Consulate-General in Vienna that he had been attacked by a group of S.A. (Elite Guard) men.

Dr. Lavine said the black-uniformed guards entered the cafe of the Stadt Theater during black-out exercises in air raid defence. He said the guards told all Jewish patrons to leave the cafe and then beat them in the darkened streets. Dr. Lavine said he received slight injuries before getting away.

The Consulate asked him to make a written report to be forwarded to Washington, D. C. Dr. Lavine has appealed from his December sentence and fine, which already had been lightened by the courts. Pending the decision, he is at liberty, but may not leave Vienna.

Dr. Lavine was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and fined 60,000 marks ($24,000) last December. These penalties were reduced, on appeal, to four months' imprisonment and a fine of 40,000 marks ($15,000). He now is seeking full clemency.

97 DEATHS FROM TUBERCULOSIS

There were 97 deaths from tuberculosis, out of 180 cases notified to the Health Department for the week ending June 3.

Other returns for the week were: 12 deaths from enteric fever, 9 deaths from cholera, out of 17 cases (one imported), 6 deaths from measles out of 28 cases, 5 deaths from cerebro-spinal fever out of 8 cases, 3 deaths from dysentery, out of 19 cases (one imported), 2 deaths from diphtheria out of 4 cases (one imported), and one death from small-pox.

Returns for June 5 include 42 cases of tuberculosis, 10 cases of enteric fever, 7 cases of dysentery, 2 cases each of cholera and diphtheria and one case each of measles and cerebro-spinal fever.

QUEEN MARY FULLY RECOVERED

LONDON, June 6 (Reuter).—Queen Mary has almost completely recovered from the ordeal of her recent motor car accident and hopes to attend the Trooping of the Colours with Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret Rose on Thursday.

The administrative efficiency of Gen. Huang Shao-hung, Chairman of the Chekiang Provincial Government, was recently highly commended by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek. Generalissimo Chiang, as a result of this, Gen. Huang's wife stated, the political training of the fighting units in Chekiang has been raised, and among other things, the provincial government's revenue has remained intact.

The French Cabinet had the Soviet Note replying to the Anglo-French proposals before it at a meeting yesterday, says a Reuter message from Paris.

EXTRA PERSONNEL HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH SINKING OF THETIS

Premier Recounts Ocean Drama To Commons

PROFOUND SORROW AT THE LOSS OF SO MANY VALUABLE LIVES: FULL PUBLIC INQUIRY PROMISED

LONDON, June 6 (Reuter).—"The extra personnel on the submarine Thetis, had nothing to do with the sinking of the vessel," declared the British Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, when he made a statement on the disaster yesterday in the House of Commons.

The Premier promised that a full public inquiry would be made and went on to express the profound sorrow of the Government and the Houses of Parliament at the loss of so many valuable lives. He expressed deep sympathy with the relatives.

Mr. Chamberlain said that the sinking of the submarine was caused by the flooding of the two forward compartments through the bow torpedo tubes, one of which had become open, or was open when the submarine submerged.

The submarine's signalling apparatus was destroyed, preventing her from communicating with surface ships.

Marker buoys and smoke signals had been released, but were not immediately observed.

An effort was made to lift the stern more from the water, with a view to making a hole in it, but the attempt was unsuccessful.

He believed that three men were killed trying to escape with the first party and were withdrawn into the submarine.

Salvage Operations
The Premier, in the course of his narrative of the salvage operations, said that wire was passed round the submarine and a "camel" placed in position, but the submarine slipped the wire and had to be re-located.

It was not possible to say how soon the submarine could be raised.
Mr. Chamberlain said that with a view to facilitating escape for the personnel, all possible measures were taken by the crew to lighten the submarine, and the stern came to the surface.

After the rescue ship Brazen had located the submarine and indicated its presence by sound signals, two survivors came to the surface by means of the Davis escape apparatus.

Great Gallantry
One of these was Captain Oram, who with great gallantry, took upon himself, before he knew the submarine had been sighted, to escape from the Thetis under conditions which were realised to be most dangerous, in order to direct operations.

Captain Oram reported that conditions in the submarine were becoming bad, although all aboard were still alive.
Later two more men came to the surface and, as soon as possible, a diver from the Vigilant went down, but he had the greatest difficulty in working.

An endeavour was made to lift the stern of submarine higher with a view to cutting a hole above the water as soon as conditions allowed. To have attempted to cut a hole in the conditions then obtaining would have in-

HITLER PRAISES GERMANS WHO FOUGHT IN SPAIN

BERLIN, June 6 (T/Ocean).—Speaking to-day before the German "Condor" legionnaires, returned from Spain, Field-Marshal Goering, in the presence of the German Fuehrer, at "Lustgarten," Berlin, praised the German volunteers for their bravery and efficiency shown in fighting for National Spain.

Speaking after Goering, Herr Hitler said that for the first time close co-operation between Germany and Italy was publicly demonstrated. The ideal motives prompting Germany and Italy to help National Spain were neither understood nor admitted by the international plutocrats.

Hitler, turning to the legionnaires, said that their struggle in Spain must be regarded as a lesson for Germany's adversaries. It was a fight for Germany and those German soldiers who had taken part in it would be able to pass on their experience to the young soldiers of German Army.

BIG RESPONSE TO APPEAL

Funds For Thetis Crew Dependents

LONDON, June 6 (Reuter).—Piles of letters have arrived at the Mansion House in response to the Lord Mayor's appeal for funds for the dependents of those who lost their lives in the submarine Thetis disaster.

Messages of condolences continue to be received by the Admiralty from all parts of the world, while messages have been sent direct to the King by President Roosevelt, M. Daladier, Prime Minister of France, and the King of Egypt.

The Lord Mayor of Melbourne has also started a similar fund in Australia.

LORD MAYOR'S THETIS FUND

(To The Editor of The "Hongkong Daily Press")

Sir.—The disaster to the submarine Thetis, which resulted in the loss of so many lives, has evoked deep sympathy among the Chinese in Hongkong.

In token of heartfelt sympathy for England, and for the relatives of those who gave their lives in the service of their country, and in appreciation of the sympathy and support which China has received from the British people in her hour of need, we appeal to the Chinese in the Colony for donations to the fund which has been opened by the Lord Mayor of London in aid of the dependents of these gallant men.

Donations will be gratefully received by any of the undersigned, and will be duly acknowledged in the Press.

DETAINED OFFICERS SAFE

LETTER SENT TO INVESTIGATORS

SHANGHAI, June 6 (Reuter).—Col. R. C. Spear, Military Attache, and Lieut. Cooper, Language Officer, of the British Embassy in Peiping, who are being detained by the Japanese military authorities at Kalgan, are both safe and well.

This information was contained in a letter which Col. Spear sent to Mr. Lamo, Chinese Secretary to the Embassy, and Major Delamain, Brigade Major at Tientsin, who went to Kalgan to investigate the case.

Mr. Lamb and Major Delamain were not allowed to see the captives, but were given permission to send a letter to which Col. Spear replied.

Mr. Lamb and Major Delamain are now back in Peiping.

Col. Spear has been in the hands of the Japanese since May 28, while Lieut. Cooper was detained when he went to Kalgan to investigate the affair.

ESPIONAGE CHARGES

TOKYO, June 6 (Reuter).—Lt. Col. Spear, M.C., British Military Attache in China, and Lieut. Cooper, British language officer, are detained by the Japanese at Kalgan and will face charges of espionage.

It is alleged that both officers defied a request to secure authorization to enter the Japanese fighting zone.

JAPANESE ACTION IN POOTUNG

SHANGHAI, June 6 (Reuter).—The Japanese authorities to-day arrested a Briton, Mr. R. M. Tinkler, age 45, who is employed by the British-owned China Printing and Finishing Company's mill at Pootung, across the river from Shanghai.

Mr. Tinkler is accused of firing a shot at a Japanese officer and intimidating two other Japanese officers with a pistol.

Mr. Tinkler's version of the incident is not available.

MR. BUTLER TELLS THE COMMONS

RECENT EVENTS IN CHINA

LONDON, June 6 (Reuter).—In giving an account of the recent happenings in China during question time in the House of Commons yesterday, Mr. R. A. Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, said that some fighting had been proceeding in Central China, in the Han River area, and that the general line held by both sides remained the same.

The general situation in the International Settlement of Shanghai remained substantially unchanged and there was no reduction in the number of landing parties in Kiangsu.

Negotiations for a settlement there were continuing and British and American marines were still on land.

Regarding the British Officers held by the Japanese, Mr. Butler said that he understood that the Chinese Secretary to the Embassy and the British Military Liaison Officer were returning to Peking and were expected there on Sunday with the latest news.

The whole matter had been taken up with the Japanese military authorities and the Government.

HUAHSING BANK ORGANIZATION EXPLAINED

Was Establishment Necessary?

LONDON, June 6 (Reuter).—The Japanese Government reply to the British Government's inquiries regarding the Huahsing Bank has been circulated to members of the House of Commons.

The reply states that the Huahsing Bank was organized under the laws of the "reformed government of the Chinese republic."

It was not expected to act as a central bank as its notes would be convertible into foreign currency, the reserve of which would be kept equal or more to the amount of the note issue.

OLD LEGAL TENDER

Huahsing Bank notes would be additional and were not intended to replace the old legal tender. "No attack on the old legal tender was intended" and Huahsing Bank notes will be acceptable in payment of all taxes and duties except Customs which will be left as at present.

"In the present circumstances no trade or exchange control is deemed necessary nor is it contemplated."

London financiers, interviewed by Reuter, ask why, if this was all, was the Huahsing intended to do, was it necessary to establish it?

SOVIET REPLY:

PRIME MINISTER URGED TO VISIT MOSCOW

THE UNDESIRABLE PHENOMENA OF IMPASSABLE BARRIERS BETWEEN BRITAIN AND RUSSIA

LONDON, June 6 (Reuter).—"The reply of the Soviet Government to the proposals made by the British and French Governments has been received and is now under consideration," said Mr. Neville Chamberlain, in the House of Commons yesterday.

Asked whether he considered Chamberlain said that, in the present circumstances, he did not consider that the suggestion would serve any useful purpose.

Mr. Chamberlain made no reply when he was asked whether he did not feel that a personal visit would remove "the undesirable phenomena of impassable barriers between Britain and Russia."

BELGRAVE SQUARE SHOOTING

SHOT FIRED AT DUCHESS OF KENT'S CAR

MAN TAKEN INTO CUSTODY AFTER A SHORT STRUGGLE

LONDON, June 6 (Reuter).—As the Duchess of Kent, accompanied by Lady Fortington, Lady-in-Waiting, was leaving her home in Belgrave Square yesterday evening to visit a cinema, a shot was heard.

The Duchess and her companion were uninjured and were not aware of the incident until after they had left the cinema.

A man standing near the scene was taken into custody after a short struggle, but no charge was preferred against him.

Shot-Gun Found

A sawn-off shot-gun, containing one cartridge, was found near the Duchess's house.

A window of the Princess Royal's house was broken yesterday morning by a pellet, believed to be from an air-gun or catapult, but it is understood that the Police attach no importance to this.

Police Guard

Following the incident, a police guard of three officers was posted outside the Duke of Kent's home in Belgrave Square, but this morning the guard was reduced to one man.

Short Struggle

When the shot was fired, two policemen dashed towards the man who was standing near.

There was a short struggle and then the man was detained and taken to the Police Station.

The Duke of Kent was fulfilling a private engagement and did not hear of the incident until he returned home.

The Duke and Duchess of Kent's two children were staying at Coppins, their parents' home in Buckinghamshire.

MAN CHARGED

Ledward Vincent Lawlor appeared at Westminster Police Court charged with having in his possession a firearm and ammunition with intent to endanger life, or cause serious injury to property, contrary to the Firearms Act of 1937.

Lawlor was remanded in custody.

The Prime Minister, Mr. Chamberlain, and the Foreign Secretary, Lord Halifax, received the Polish Ambassador at No. 10 Downing Street yesterday morning, states a Reuter message from London.

The former British Foreign Secretary, Mr. Anthony Eden, will according to the "Daily Express" shortly go to Paris where he will have conversations with influential French politicians. (T.O.)

JAPAN'S ACTION ILLEGAL

Ranpura Incident Raised In Commons

Explanation Satisfactory "So Far As It Goes"

LONDON, JUNE 6 (REUTER).—QUESTIONS WERE ASKED IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS YESTERDAY ON JAPAN'S CLAIM TO THE RIGHT TO BLOCKADE CHINESE PORTS.

Mr. R. A. Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, replied that shortly after the outbreak of Sino-Japanese hostilities in 1937, the Japanese Government purported to declare a blockade of the whole coast, but, however, they had said that it would be exclusively applied to Chinese vessels.

Any attempt to apply the blockade to vessels of other powers would constitute the assertion of belligerent rights and, in the absence of a state of war between China and Japan, that would be illegal.

The British Government had already made its views on the matter clear to the Japanese Government.

RANPURA INCIDENT

Mr. R. H. Morgan (Con.) asked if the Government considered the Ranpura incident closed on the Japanese explanation that they mistook the identity of the vessel.

Mr. R. A. Butler: We have always agreed that our ships might be boarded in cases of genuine doubt, whether the ships were British or not. There could be no doubt in the case of the Ranpura and that was why we took up a definite attitude and have now received the explanation given.

Mr. Morgan asked if that explanation was considered satisfactory?

Mr. Butler was understood to reply: Yes, so far as it goes.

ROYAL TRAIN SPEEDING TO U.S. BORDER

SUDBURY, June 6 (Reuter).—With only three more major stops before crossing over the United States border, Their Majesties the King and Queen are now spending the night on board the Royal Train as it speeds eastwards on another all-night run.

Minor Mishap

The main dining saloon of the Royal train was flooded early this morning as the result of a minor mishap while the train was taking in water during the night halt at Sudbury. Their Majesties' private dining saloon was not affected. Workmen spent the night replacing the saloon's carpets which were soaked.

RESTRICTIONS ON BRITISH SHIPPING

Japanese Action In Tsingtao

LONDON, June 6 (Reuter).—In the House of Commons yesterday, Sir Stewart Sandeman (Con.) asked whether the Prime Minister was aware that the Japanese Naval Mission in Tsingtao now required landing permits for each separate Bill of Lading in respect of goods shipped in British vessels; that cargoes have to be stored for several days on the open wharf; and that no restrictions were placed on cargoes arriving by Japanese vessels? Also whether the Prime Minister would indicate to the Japanese Government that unless restrictions to British trade were removed, it may be necessary to impose similar restrictions on Japanese vessels arriving at British ports?

Mr. R. A. Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, said that the reply to the first two parts of the question was in the affirmative.

He added that discrimination existed so far as warehouse accommodation was made available for Japanese vessels, but "not yet for British vessels."

The matter had been taken up with the local Japanese authorities in Tsingtao and representations had been made by Sir Robert Craigie, the British Ambassador, in Tokyo, pressing for the allocation of further berths or reasonable warehouse space.

BIG FIRE IN WARSAW

Central Station Damaged

WARSAW, June 6 (T/Ocean).—Fire broke out at the Central Station, Warsaw, early this morning which by the time the report was received—10 a.m.—had assumed such gigantic dimensions that the entire building was threatened with destruction.

Immediately after detection of the fire all brigades in the capital were called out and streets leading to the station were closed by strong police detachments, and traffic from provinces to the Central Station was diverted to suburban stations.

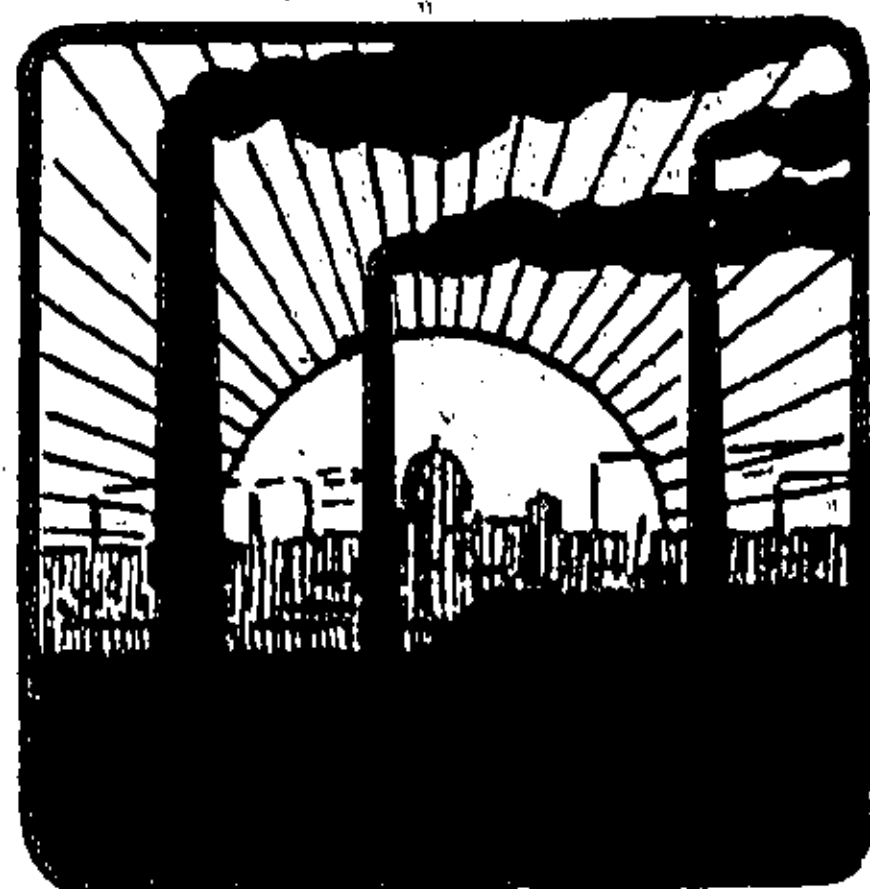

Investigations have been started already to ascertain the cause of the conflagration. It is not known, so far, whether any lives were lost. The damage is all the heavier as it is practically a brand new building, which the flames are consuming at the moment.

In the course of the last 10 years, the old station has been rebuilt and had now, more or less, been replaced by a new and much bigger station.

EXCITING CHASE AFTER MAN FOLLOWING THEFT OF WALLET ABOARD LAUNCH

A story of an exciting chase among motor-boats and sampans, up a rope to the deck of the Jardine vessel Ming Sang and down another on the other side of the ship, culminating in the latter rope snapping and the alleged fugitive plunging into the sea, was told at the Kowloon Court yesterday when Wong Chung appeared on a charge of larceny of a wallet while Chan Lai-chai was charged with aiding and abetting.

BROKER ACCUSED OF OBTAINING MONEY

False Pretences Alleged

E.D. Sykes, 45, broker, residing at No. 171, Sai Yee Street, appeared on remand before Mr. R. Edwards, at the Central Court yesterday, charged with obtaining sums of $1,250 and $1,000 by false pretences, from the Reliance Motors, on March 7 and 14, respectively. Mr. J. A. Duff appeared as complainant on behalf of Reliance Motors, who were represented by Mr. O. E. C. Marton, whilst defendant was represented by Mr. F. H. Loseby.

In opening the case, Mr. Marton said: Mr. W. A. H. Duff and his brother, Mr. J. A. Duff are Directors of Reliance Motors Ltd. Sykes was introduced to the Duff brothers early this year, and at the meeting Sykes informed them that he had several propositions in mind, but lacked the necessary financial backing.

Sykes mentioned about a number of transactions which had been put over by him, and to support his statements, he produced documents to prove it. Sykes had convinced Messrs. Duff, and mentioned that he was in a position to tender for contracts for hire of motor vehicles to the military authorities.

On February 28 Sykes went to the Duff brothers and told them in an excited manner that he had learned of a new contract with the military authorities, and that it had been made necessary owing to the disturbed political situation.

He told them he was cheated by the United Delivery firm out of his commission so he insisted on being given a free hand. He further mentioned that he had gained the confidence of the military authorities through having secured the contract for United Delivery.

Following this, Sykes produced a statement showing the number of cars and lorries required by the military authorities, and also rates of hire, on March 2.

On March 3, Sykes again told the brothers that one of the chief clerks in the R.A.S.C. office had shown him a letter on which appeared the signature of General Gracett. He claimed that the contract had actually been accepted, and that the terms of hire were the same as those quoted by him.

On March 7 and 14, Sykes managed to obtain the two sums of money from the Duff brothers on the strength of having obtained the military contracts.

J. A. Duff gave evidence after which the hearing was adjourned to June 9. Bail in the sum of $3,000 was allowed.

The incident occurred about 10 a.m. on May 23 when the s.s. Ming Sang was moored at buoy B2. The man who lost the wallet was Mr. Lai Yui-man, of No. 10, Peking Road, and the wallet was stated to have been taken from him as he was walking on the deck of a Hongkong launch that was alongside the Ming Sang.

Mr. Lau was making his way to a motor-boat that was engaged for him when a man blocked his path. He was at a loss as to what to do and asked the man which way he wished to go, when he was attracted by the sound of a scuffle and saw a messenger of the Hongkong Hotel detaining a man.

The messenger was accusing the man, Wong Chung, of picking a Chinese passenger's pocket, whereupon Mr. Lau felt his pocket and found that his own wallet was missing. A second man, Chan Lai-chai, the second defendant, was leaping from boat to boat, with two sailors of the Hotel launch in hot pursuit.

ROPE SNAPPED

The escaping man climbed up a rope to the deck of the ship, made his way to the opposite side and started to climb down. The rope snapped and he plunged into the sea. The two sailors climbed down by another rope, commandeered a sampan, and pulled the fugitive, who was clinging to the rudder of a small boat, into the sampan.

The two men were taken by Mr. W. V. Field, in charge of the Hotel launch, to the Water Police Station, and were subsequently charged.

Wong Chung was committed by Mr. E. Himsforth to stand trial on a larceny charge at the Criminal Sessions, and sentence of six months' hard labour was passed on Chan Lai-chai. The two seamen, Lo Chiu and Chang Kan, who caught the second defendant, were commended by the Magistrate for their public spirited act.

The missing wallet, which contained about $80 in Chinese currency and two Indo-Chinese bank notes for five piastres, was not recovered.

The Postmaster-General in Britain announces that air mail for the United States, Canada, Newfoundland, and the Azores can now be accepted for transmission from Marseilles by the United States transatlantic air service, which was inaugurated by the flight of the Yankee Clipper from New York to Southampton.

The postage rates are 1s. 3d. a box (postcards 7d.) for the United States, Canada, and Newfoundland, and 8d. a box (postcards 3d.) for the Azores. A blue air mail label should be fixed to the top left-hand corner of the envelope, which should also be superscribed "North Atlantic Air Service."

Correspondence for destinations in the United States beyond New York and in Canada will be forwarded from New York by air without extra charge.

A general meeting of the Overseas Chamber of Commerce was held yesterday when the statement of accounts was adopted.

BOYCOTT OF JAPANESE GOODS

THREAT AGAIN IN MANILA

SHANGHAI, June 6 (Int'l).—The movement for a boycott of Japanese goods is threatening to re-awaken in Manila, according to information received here. The trend is being watched with keen attention by Chinese in Hongkong.

Not only are Japanese goods forced to compete with products raised in the Philippines and those imported from Hongkong, Shanghai and the United States, says the report, but they are faced with a vigorous boycott being staged against Japanese imports by Chinese traders, who virtually monopolize the sale of food products in the islands.

Sales of Japanese cotton cloth, the chamber investigation committee found to be satisfactory, but Japanese onions, wheat flour, canned mackerel, potatoes and canned goods in general are finding it impossible to stand up against American competition.

Metal goods, also almost a monopoly of the Chinese merchants, have been heavily hit by foreign products from the United States, Hongkong and Shanghai. Japanese leather manufactures, thermos bottles, hosiery, cotton shirts, fountain pens, coloured glasses and celluloid combs have also met up with a falling market.

Chinese merchants in Manila hesitate to deal in Japanese goods, even when they are better and cheaper than foreign and Chinese goods, and it is this that is resulting in the lower demand for Japanese goods in the Philippine Islands.

CZECH GOLD IN ENGLAND

BANK OF ENGLAND'S LEGAL POSITION

LONDON, June 6 (Reuter).—Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in making a further statement in the House of Commons yesterday on Czech gold assets held by the Bank of England, said that he had consulted the law officers, who advised that the British Government be precluded from taking any steps to prevent the Bank of England from obeying the instructions given to it by its customer, the Bank for International Settlements, to transfer the gold as directed.

It would be a breach of treaty obligations to withhold Treasury consent.

'Sir John Simon added that there was no validity in any of the suggestions made in the recent debate that the Bank of England would be entitled to refuse to obey instructions given by the Bank of International Settlements and that there was no means whereby the Treasury could obtain a ruling of the courts as to whether they had the power to prevent the Bank of England making a transfer when ordered to do so.

WORLD'S BIGGEST PHOTOGRAPHIC ENLARGEMENT

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Quite a stir was caused in the poster world recently by the giant display facing King William Street in the City of London to advertise Oldham's new weekly paper "Illustrated." This colossal poster measured no less than 34 feet wide by 37 feet deep and comprised the biggest enlargement ever made.

This enlargement was made possible by the invention of Mr. J. Purvis, Frater, of the Photo Electrograph Co., of Slough, which involves a process utilising a photo-electric cell to control an air brush for the enlargement or reproduction of photographs, prints or drawings, on almost any material that will wrap round a drum—paper, linen, thin metal etc.—and up to any size.

Briefly, according to the General Electric Co., of England, the process involves the scanning, by a beam of light from an Osram exciter lamp, of a photograph or drawing, so that the reflected beam varies according to the light and shade on the picture. This light is converted by means of the photo-electric cell into a varying current which passes through a valve amplifier.

The amplified current is then used to operate an ingenious spray gun, the jet of which varies with the modulations in the current. The enlargement is, therefore, a reproduction identical with a photograph produced by the carbon process, the difference being that the pigment composing the image is deposited electrically instead of chemically. Apart from costing considerably less than photographic enlargements the process has several other advantages which make it especially valuable for mural and ceiling decoration, exhibition work and short runs of poster displays, where litho printing would cost too much.

CLYDE'S £52,000,000 IN NAVAL ORDERS

Clyde's immense contribution in ships, machinery, and armour to the Royal Navy, involving £52,000,000, was revealed on May 18 by Mr. Geoffrey Shakespeare, Parliamentary Secretary to the Admiralty. Mr. Shakespeare was speaking at a luncheon in Messrs Alexander Stephen and Sons' offices, Linthouse, Glasgow, following the launch of H.M. cruiser Hermione—the naming ceremony was performed by Mrs. Shakespeare.

Mr. Shakespeare said that since April 1, 1936, no fewer than 73 ships had been ordered from Clyde firms, these including two battle-ships, one aircraft carrier, seven cruisers, two destroyer depot ships, two submarine depot ships, 23 destroyers, three submarines, 12 escort vessels, and other craft such as minelayers, patrol ships, boom defence vessels and tugs; 22 of these ships had been completed.

SECRET ARMY
LIST

The Monthly Army List for April has been bound in a red cover, instead of the normal pink. This change of colour is presumably to make it more conspicuous and to afford no excuse for leaving the list about.

On the cover it is stated:

"This document is the property of H. M. Government, and is issued for the information of officers and responsible officials. The officer or official in possession of the document will be responsible for its safe custody and that its contents are not disclosed to any other person. The document will be kept under lock and key when not in official use."

THE SPELL
OF THE HIMALAYASTWO GERMAN
EXPEDITIONSTIBETAN VENTURE
ON THE WAY

THE SPELL OF THE HIMA-LAYAS AND THE DESIRE TO CONQUER, THE HIGHEST PEAK IN THE WORLD SEEM TO HAVE AN ETERNAL AT-TRACTION FOR THE ENG-LISH AND GERMANS.

Two new German expeditions are now under way.
One is a private one equipped by the German-Swiss E.
Grob, and is concentrating on the Nepal Peak in the Sikkim district.

The second German expedition, sponsored by the German Himalaya Fund, is directing its attack once again on Nanga Parbat.

After many German mountaineers have lost their lives in vain attempts to climb the eastern face, this year's expedition is following the tracks of Mummery, the English explorer who was lost in an attempt on the western side in 1895.

Collecting Experience

This year's expedition is really reconnoitring and collecting experience for another big attempt to reach the summit in 1940.

Another well-known German explorer, Dr. W. Filchner, is once again in Asia, this time in Nepal, between Tibet and British India, where he hopes to complete his studies of the magnetism of the earth in Central Asia.

The Maharaja of Nepal is giving
Dr. Filchner his full support so that it is to be hoped that he will be able to continue his work without unpleasant interruptions such as last time when he was imprisoned in Tibet for many weeks.

Tibetan Expedition

The German Tibet Expedition,
under the leadership of Dr. Schaffers, has left Lhasa after a stay of two months, and is now enroute to Yalung Phodang, which has so far never been visited by any member of the white races.
The Regent of Tibet has given the Expedition a number of valuable gifts for the Führer. Dr. Schaffers and his companions are expected back in India at the beginning of June. (Transocean).

SUBMARINE UNDER ARCTIC ICE
TO TURN ON THE HEAT FOR AIR

SYDNEY, New South Wales.—A difficult problem of piloting a submarine under the ice of the Arctic regions has been solved, according to Sir Hubert Wilkins, the explorer, by a novel device which will allow the submarine craft he is building to come up for air.

"In order that the crew may come to the surface for air and the batteries may be recharged," said Sir Hubert, in outlining his plans for next year's projected voyage, "I have conceived
the idea of a retractable funnel, the upper rim of which will be electrically heated. This heated rim will be shoved against the bottom of the ice, which it should melt at the rate of one foot a minute, and the core of ice so cut will be pushed up by an elevator in the funnel. The crew will follow through the hole."

Hard Rubber Nose

"The vessel we have designed," added Sir Hubert, "will have a nose of hard rubber to help it to glide under the ice without undue friction."

The explorer said: "It is a fallacy to believe that the waters of this region are covered by icebergs hundreds of feet deep.
Observations show that the ice seldom extends below the surface for depths of more than 15 feet, and the sea is three miles deep."

Sir Hubert said that another difficulty was to avoid damaging the vessel's rudders. To overcome this problem, he proposed to abolish rudders and substitute a Gill propeller, which could steer and elevate the vessel at the same time.

There would be undersea visibility of from 50 to 70 yards, and the temperature would be about 70 degrees warmer under the water than on top of the ice.
The engines and propeller, for his vessel had already been purchased, but the hull had yet to be built. A 20-foot working model which had been built in Britain

China To Eradicate Opium
Evil By End Of 1940

CHUNGKING, June 5 (Central).—Despite the Sino-Japanese hostilities, the Chinese Government is determined to eradicate the opium evil before the end of 1940 in accordance with its original scheme, declared Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek in a radio broadcast on the occasion of the centenary of the destruction of a huge shipment of opium by order of Viceroy Lin Tse-hsu at the Bocca Tigris in 1839.

The Generalissimo pointed out the necessity of strong and healthy citizens to serve as reserves for the Chinese Army so as to carry the war of resistance to a successful end, and in order to have such citizens the opium evil must be totally eliminated.

The Generalissimo expressed the hope that with equal determination as in the war of resistance every Chinese citizen will assist the government in the enforcement of the opium suppression scheme, and take the elimination of this evil as his or her responsibility.

The Generalissimo sounded a stern warning to the farmers against planting any more poppy.
In case any poppy is discovered those responsible will be executed. He said that he had already instructed the authorities in various provinces to investigate and uproot any poppy if planted. In this period of reconstruction the farmers, especially in the southwestern provinces should engage in useful agricultural pursuits,
he emphasized.

The Generalissimo then advised the opium addicts to get cured of their evil habit after the expiration of the opium suppression period will be punished in accordance with law.

The Generalissimo in particular called the attention of the Chinese in the Japanese "occupied" areas to the Japanese narcotic policy. A drug trade is being carried on by the Japanese by shipping opium and other narcotic drugs from Manchuria, Jehol, Chahar and Suiyuan to the "occupied" areas for sale to the Chinese. This has a twofold sinister purpose of weakening the Chinese physique and collecting Chinese legal tender notes which they may convert into foreign exchange and replenish their fast dwindling treasury.

Dealt As Traitors

He advised the Chinese in the "occupied" areas to refrain from falling prey to the Japanese narcotic evil. Anyone who buys opium or other drugs from the Japanese for consumption should be dealt with as traitors while anyone trafficking in opium or other drugs should be eliminated.

The frustration of the Japanese narcotic policy will have a strong bearing upon China's victory in this war, declared the Generalissimo.

In conclusion, the Generalissimo stated that in this final stage of China's opium suppression campaign full Party, political and military strength, as well as the co-operation of the people should be enlisted to liquidate the evil. Opium suppression and armed resistance should be carried out side by side without neglect.

VATICAN CITY, June 6

(REUTER).—A Vatican statement issued last night denied reports that the Pope had sent fresh messages to the European leaders, but adds that diplomatic peace activity initiated by the Pope are continuing "on lines of the plan already indicated."

Common's Query

LONDON, June 6 (REUTER).—In the House of Commons yesterday, Mr. W. Wedgwood Benn (Lab.) asked if any reply had been made to the representations said to have been made by the Vatican to the British Government.

Mr. Chamberlain said he did not know what were the representations to which he had been referred.

Replying to a further question, the Premier said that he was unaware that any representations had been made by the Vatican against the conclusion of a pact with Russia.

JAPANESE AIR
RAIDS

KIAN, KIANGI, June 6 (Central).—Japanese aircraft staged two air raids over Kian, south-west of Nanchang, yesterday.

Five machines participated in the first raid, dropping four missiles in the outskirts. In the second raid, six planes dumped over 30 explosives in the heart of the town, wounding more than 10 civilians and wrecking a number of houses.

A village near Taiho, south of Kian, was also bombed by the raiders.

SINGLE-HANDED
RESISTANCEChinese Cavalryman's
Plucky Act

YULIN, SHENSI, June 6 (Central).—The story of how a Chinese cavalryman held up the advance of a Japanese column single-handed has just been received here.

The cavalryman is Feng Teng-kao. His horse was killed in a clash with the Japanese at Hsiang-shu, Suiyuan, on May 27, and he was granted leave of absence by the Chinese field headquarters.

While resting in a village near Tsiangshu, he saw a party of Japanese cavalrymen coming to the village. Taking shelter behind a house, he fired upon the Japanese vanguards and instantly killed three of them.

Seeing their vanguards halted, the bulk of the Japanese troops, who arrived later, machine-gunned and shelled the village below.

Upon nightfall a Chinese self-defence unit came to Feng's rescue in a counter-attack and drove the Japanese off.

TIENTSIN BOMB
POSSESSIONTwo Chinese Handed
Over To Japanese

SHANGHAI, June 6 (REUTER).—Reuter learns that the British authorities have decided to hand over to the Japanese, the two Chinese who were found in possession of bombs in Tientsin.

The British authorities, however, are not handing over the four men alleged to have been involved in the assassination of Cheng Shikang, the Commissioner of Customs in Tientsin, who was shot dead in a cinema in the British Concession on April 6.

It will be recalled that these men, by arrangement with the British authorities, were examined by the Japanese and handed back, but the British are not returning them because their own investigations have convinced them that the men are not guilty.
